PROFILE

Security-focused Electrical/Electronics Engineering student (300-Level, University of Ibadan) building toward SOC Analyst and Security Engineer roles. Currently deploying production SIEM infrastructure, cloud log ingestion pipelines, and automated DevSecOps security gates as part of Expadox Lab Cohort 3. Background in backend engineering and hardware troubleshooting sharpens how I reason about system failure points and attack surfaces.

EDUCATION

B.Sc – Electrical/Electronics Engineering

June 2024 – Present

University of Ibadan | Ibadan, Nigeria

- Second Class Upper (300-Level); Capstone: Design & Implementation of a Smart Energy Meter Using IoT Technology

WORK EXPERIENCE

Cybersecurity Intern

Aug 2026 – Present

Expadox Lab (Cohort 3) | Remote

- Lead a 5-person team (IronGuard) building blue team infrastructure — SIEM deployment, cloud log ingestion (AWS CloudTrail, Azure Activity Log), and vulnerability remediation for simulated healthcare clients.
- Deployed Wazuh 4.14.7 and Action1 for patch management, reducing critical CVEs from 7 to 0 and achieving 87% patch compliance.
- Built a DevSecOps pipeline (GitHub Actions, OWASP ZAP, Semgrep, Trivy, Gitleaks) with automated SOAR response via Shuffle, blocking builds on medium-or-higher severity findings.
- Configured ZeroTier overlay VPN connectivity and a Python CVE/SLA tracker with automatic severity classification.

Electrical Technician Trainee (SWEP)

200-Level

Alabi Auto Works | Ibadan, Nigeria

- Diagnosed and resolved automotive electrical faults, interpreting wiring diagrams and testing relays, fuses, and control units under certified technician supervision.
- Documented fault findings and safety procedures, contributing to a zero-incident work record.
